

2012 Horticulture Magazine Award Form

Criteria for the award include the design and maintenance of horticulturally outstanding plant displays; the use of gardening practices appropriate to local and regional environmental concerns; and excellence in care, maintenance, and presentation of plant collections. The award is open to member gardens of all sizes and budgets.

Instructions: Applicants should submit a minimum of 10 and a maximum of 30 digital images to illustrate their displays, gardening practices, and, when available, collections. Supporting documentation should include information on the number of gardeners and volunteers working on these displays; a sample of associated signage or materials designed to encourage visitors to use environmentally aware garden practices; and information, if any, on how the displays are used in other gardening educational programs; and a statement of 500 words or less describing your reason for this nomination.

Submit your nomination via email, fax, or US mail no later than February 28, 2012.
